

I wish to keep the Indiana phone laws the same. If a bank I have an account with wishes to contact me about my accounts thats fine but not for asking me to open new credit or accept credit cards. I have enjoyed the last 5 years of my phone not ringing for these annoying offers. My junk mail is bad enough. Thank you.